Food Resources - CalFresh

What is CalFresh?

CalFresh is a California food benefits program that helps students buy groceries. It won’t affect your existing financial aid and you don't need your parent’s tax returns to apply. The average eligible student gets up to $291 each month in benefits which can be used at select locations and stores (including online stores). It takes less than an hour to check your eligibility and apply. You'll get a call from CalFresh in a couple of days to verify your situation. If approved, you’ll get money within 30 days through an electronic benefits transfer card (EBT).

Who qualifies?

All students must meet age, income, and social security guidelines. The following qualifications are a good indicator of eligibility:

- Federal or State Work-Study recipient
- Working 20+ hours a week or 80+ hours a month consistently
- Cal Grant recipient

Find additional qualification information here.

Where can I use CalFresh dollars?

Many stores accept EBT. Find physical retailer locations by clicking here. You can purchase groceries online. Shop at the Trojan Farmers Market. Learn how here.

How do I manage my benefits?

Create your online portal at benefitscal.com to check case status, balances, report changes, or complete six or one-year check-in. If needed, you will be redirected to your counties appropriate website.
